

YOUR VOTE IS POWERFUL

Elected officials represent the priorities of their constituents (YOU!) in the rooms where decisions are made.

- 1 Identify your priorities
- 2 Learn who is on your ballot
- 3 Understand their role in decision making
- 4 Discover where they stand on your priorities

STEP BY STEP GUIDE

Informed votes = a better future

There are 4 steps to candidate research.

- 1 Identify your priorities
- 2 Learn who is on your ballot
- 3 Understand their role in decision making
- 4 Discover where they stand on your priorities

STEP 4

candidate research

IDENTIFY YOUR PRIORITIES

Ask yourself:

What issues impact me and my Community?

What do I want the future to look like?

What qualities or values would earn a candidate my vote?

- 1 Identify your priorities
- 2 Learn who is on your ballot
- 3 Understand their role in decision making
- 4 Discover where they stand on your priorities

STEP 3

candidate research

LEARN WHO IS ON YOUR BALLOT

Explore:

Your state and/or county's elections website or use our voter tool to discover who is running for office.

