

Questioning citizenship is voter intimidation

* Voter intimidation does not have to occur at a polling place to be illegal.

While VOTER INTIMIDATION is uncommon it is important to know the forms it can take, including:

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO FEEL SAFE WHILE VOTING

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO VOTE IF YOU ARE IN LINE BEFORE POLLS CLOSE

If you are waiting in line when the polls close, you have a right to stay in line as long as it takes to cast your ballot.

If you experience any actions that you believe violate your voting rights contact 866-OUR-VOTE immediately to be put in touch with an attorney from Native American Rights Fund (NARF).

This publication is brought to you by the Native Organizers Alliance, with support from NARF and is meant to be shared. Spread the word. Make copies.

Together, we protect our right to vote.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO ACCESSIBILITY SUPPORT

Polling places and workers must legally allow or provide disability and language assistance.

Support you are entitled to:

Bringing a family member, neighbor, or someone else you trust to help you cast your vote. This includes help if English is not your first language.

1924 LIKE IT'S VOTE

In AK, AZ, MI, WI, ID, NV, and TX certain jurisdictions are REQUIRED to have election information translated into several Native languages and provide bilingual election workers to support.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS!

If you make a mistake on your ballot, ask for a new one. NEVER cross out selections.

If the machines are down at your polling place, ask for a paper ballot.

If you are denied either of these contact: 866-OUR-VOTE

Do you vote by mail? Always complete and return your ballot as early as possible.

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO A PROVISIONAL BALLOT

If a poll worker can't determine if you are eligible to vote, most states allow you to cast a provisional ballot.

This is a ballot that will be reviewed to determine if you are eligible. If you are, then your vote will be counted.

When do you need to ask about this option?

If there is an issue with your voter registration status

ASK ME ABOUT VOTING RIGHTS

If the identification you brought to the polling location is not considered a valid form of ID

DON'T FORGET TO CHECK YOUR STATE'S ID REQUIREMENTS

Not all states accept Tribal IDs as valid forms of identification at the polls. Sometimes it's because the ID does not include certain details like a birthdate or a photo. Plan ahead and prioritize bringing whichever identification you have that you know will be readily accepted.

You can check the voter identification requirements for your state ahead of election day at:

<https://voteriders.org/voter/tribal-id/>

Again, if your ID is not considered valid, ask about a provisional ballot!
